Civil Action No. 08-295 GMS

PAMELA A. DARLING et al)

Defendant)

PLAINTIFF'S WITHDRAWAL OF MOTION FOR SANCTIONS AGAINST THE ATTORNEY, RICHARD H. MORSE, UNDER RULE
11 OF FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURES

The Plaintiff, Nina Shahin, thereby withdraws her Motion for Sanctions against the attorney representing the firm of Young Conaway, Stargatt and Taylor LLP, Mr. Richard H. Morse.

After careful examination of the case law and different legal commentaries related to the legal issue raised in the Motion for Sanctions the Plaintiff have to admit that the private course of action under Bivens is accorded only against the federal employees. Violations of constitutional rights by state employees are to be brought under the Civil Rights Act of 1871 (42 U.S.C. § 1983). Since the Plaintiff's accusations against most of the judges are based on Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organization Act, the Civil Rights of 1871 has a relatively minor importance although Federal Courts Improvement Act of 1996 also has relevance to the Plaintiff's case.

The Plaintiff, therefore, withdraws her Motion and offers her apology for that premature Motion that was caused by the pressure of deadline and the acute shortage of time to research the issue before the submission of the Motion.
